

Standards of Training in Gas Work

Gas Skills Training and Assessment

Information Sheet	IMPORTANT - This course was formerly known as ACOPS
Title	STGW 130 Cavity Wall Insulation Technician
Duration	1 day
Aims and Objectives	A training programme designed to provide the skills and knowledge required by a technician in order to correctly identify installation requirements and potential hazards associated with the flues and ventilation systems in domestic properties.
Scope	The programme is intended for technicians undertaking the installation of cavity wall insulation in domestic properties.
Pre-Requisites	Candidates must have completed a basic health and safety course.
Training	The training programme will utilise our cavity wall technician specific training notes and encompass the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Applicable legislation• Unsafe situations procedures• Complete and incomplete combustion• Flue systems and types of flue• Ventilation fundamentals• Air supply requirements• Understanding appliances
Competence	The candidate's knowledge and understanding of the subject will be established by the application of a multi-choice theoretical question paper and completion of specified practical tasks.
Assessment	The assessment will be conducted by an assessor qualified to A1 or equivalent standard.
Verification	The assessment process will be verified by an internal verifier qualified to V1 or equivalent standard.
Certification	The programme will be certificated by LPG Training. A certificate of competence will be issued to successful candidates. Photo ID cards are available at extra cost. Alternatively we can arrange certification through Logic Certification Ltd – A Certification Body accredited by UKAS as compliant with the requirements of BS EN ISO 17024. Please inform us of this preference at the time of order as this will involve additional time and cost.