

ACS

Gas Skills Training and Assessment

Information Sheet

Title	CCLP1 PD (Permanent Dwellings)
Duration	Initial 6 days Renewal 4 days
Aims and Objectives	A training and assessment programme designed to clearly identify the skills and knowledge required by a competent person, to carry out installation, commission, service and repair of gas systems and appliances installed in domestic and small commercial premises.
Scope	This programme is intended for experienced gas operatives. Candidates must be able to satisfy the requirements of the ACS Scheme Rules, contact us for full details.
Training	The training programme will encompass the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Gas Safety (Installation & Use) Regulations 1998• Relevant Health & Safety Regulations• RIDDOR• Properties and characteristics of LPG• Complete and incomplete combustion• Gas storage• Tightness testing procedures• Gas input rating• Ventilation requirements• Open, closed and balanced flues• Dealing with unsafe situations
Competence	The candidate's knowledge and understanding of the subject will be established by the application of a multi-choice theoretical question papers and completion of specified practical tasks.
Assessment	The assessment will be conducted by an assessor qualified to A1 or equivalent standard.
Verification	The assessment process will be verified by an internal verifier qualified to V1 or equivalent standard.
Certification	The programme will be certificated by Logic Certification Ltd – A Certification Body accredited by UKAS as compliant with the requirements of BS EN ISO 17024.